

Sing2Learn Teacher's Course

3 Day Workshop
Thursday 7th July – Saturday 9th July

- ★ Use singing to build literacy and numeracy in your classroom
- ★ Sing for 'getting along' and learning manners
- ★ Learn to sing with confidence with your class
- ★ Assembly hints, tips and tricks from music specialists

No Music Experience Needed! Non-singers Welcome!

- "Lots of learning - Loads of Fun"
 - "This is a fabulous course to build your resources and skills if music/singing is not your strong talent."
 - "A breath of fresh air. Extremely well organised. Reminds me why I became a teacher"
- 2015 Sing2Learn Participants*

Who:

This course is for Classroom Teachers PreK – Year 2 who would like to improve their own singing ability and confidence or who would like new songs and games to play with their classes.

Where:

Presbyterian Ladies' College, Peppermint Grove, Western Australia

Presenters:

Rosalie Scott
Music Educator at Hale School, Past-President of KMEIA WA, Vocal Specialist
Anne Comiskey
Education QLD Primary Music Specialist, Past Associate Professor at University of Hartford, Connecticut USA

Cost:

Three Day Workshop – $400
Student Price – $200
Includes:
Morning Tea and Lunch each day
Course Song File and CD ($50 value)
Musical Beginnings DVD ($50 value)
16.5 hours Professional Development

Register Online or email:
wa@kodaly.org.au

Daily Timetable

8:30am	Group Singing Lesson Learn to sing in the safety of a large group
9:15am	Vocal Development in Children Explore songs that warm up the voice and body and learn how to help your class sing with confidence
10am	Morning Tea - Provided
10:30am	Classroom Choir Learn songs appropriate for assemblies and special events such as ANZAC day and Grandparent's Day. Get the best out of your class singing together
11:30am	Singing For Literacy and Numeracy Discover songs that promote literacy and numeracy in the classroom
12:15pm	Planning your Sing2Learn Lessons Look at lesson planning and practice teaching Sing2Learn lessons in a safe learning environment
1pm	Lunch - Provided
2pm - 3:30pm	We All Sing! Music-making is part of our culture. Explore how singing empowers children in the wider community.

