

Kodály NSW PRESENTS

Puppets in Your Pocket

Strategies for exploring music in your Early Childhood program

Rose Bloom and Jill Holland will explore the use of puppets and props as a resource in a sequential, developmental, vocally based Early Childhood Program.

They will provide ideas for using both well-known and new repertoire, resources, games and strategies that can be incorporated into existing teaching programs.

Afternoon tea provided.

NESA accredited for 2 hours

Kodály Music Education Institute of Australia through the Professional Teachers' Council NSW- is endorsed to provide the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) Registered Professional Development for teachers accredited at Proficient, Highly Accomplished, and Lead levels.

Completing the Puppets in Your Pocket: Strategies for exploring music in your early childhood program, on 4 June 2019 will contribute 2 Hours of NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) Registered PD addressing 2.5.2; 4.1.2; 6.3.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

TUESDAY 4th JUNE 2019

@ 4:30 – 6.30pm

*Pymble Turramurra Preschool
21 Handley Ave, Turramurra*

$40

For more information contact Rose Bloom (0431) 213 056

REGISTER ONLINE then share this event with your friends and colleagues!

Kodály
NSW

kodaly.org.au > Events > NSW Events

nsw@kodaly.org.au

facebook.com/KodalyNSW

instagram.com/KodalyNSW

@KodalyNSW

Kodály Music Education Institute of Australia Inc. - NSW Branch